

Walks in the Loch Tay area

Name of Walk	Description and link
Weem Wood, Weem, By Aberfeldy Distance: 1 mile Time: 1 hour	This short circular waymarked trail climbs through Weem Wood to St David's Well which has a good view over Aberfeldy and Strath Tay and then descends past crags and through native woods. Terrain Excellent waymarked path; a fair amount of up and downhill. http://www.walkhighlands.co.uk/perthshire/weem-wood.shtml
Ben Lawers Nature Trail Distance: 1.25 mile Time: 45 minutes – 1 hour	This short nature trail begins at the Ben Lawers car park, giving easy access to the mid-level slopes of the mountain, a National Nature Reserve which is renowned for its remarkable arctic-alpine flora. Terrain Rough path on the uphill section of the nature trail; the route then follows an excellent path back downhill. http://www.walkhighlands.co.uk/perthshire/lawers-nature-trail.shtml
Falls of Acharn, near Kenmore Distance: 1.25 miles Time: 1 hour	This very beautiful short walk makes a circuit around the little ravine of the Falls of Acharn above the village of the same name. The falls are very attractive and are viewed through a Victorian 'Hermit's Cave'. Terrain Good tracks and paths; care is needed near the edges of the gorge if the path is left. A fair amount of up and down is involved. http://www.walkhighlands.co.uk/perthshire/falls-of-acharn.shtml
The Birks of Aberfeldy Distance: 2 miles Time: 1-2 hours	This beautiful short walk is extremely popular. Popularised in a song by Robert Burns, the fine walk up the steep gorge of the Moness burn reveals several waterfalls. Terrain Excellent waymarked path; a good amount of up and downhill. The walk passes above steep drops but there are handrails for much of the route.

	http://www.walkhighlands.co.uk/perthshire/birks-of-aberfeldy.shtml
Auchmore Circuit, Killin Distance: 2 miles Time: 1-1.5 hours	An easy circuit on minor roads and track which explores the countryside surrounding Killin. Terrain Minor roads and tracks, fairly flat. http://www.walkhighlands.co.uk/perthshire/auchmore-circuit.shtml
Loch Tay from Killin Distance: 2.5 miles Time: 1.5-2 hours	This beautiful short walk offers great views over Loch Tay and the Rivers Lochay and Dochart. The walk is level and easy to follow, although some parts may be wet or impassable after very wet and stormy weather. Terrain Old railway line, good paths on fairly level ground. After very wet weather or storms parts of the walk may be impassable. http://www.walkhighlands.co.uk/perthshire/loch-tay-walk.shtml
Innerwick and Bridge of Balgie, Glen Lyon Distance: 2.75 miles Time: 1.5 miles	Glen Lyon is renowned for its great beauty; this walk gives a chance to explore its middle reaches, climbing through the Ben Meggernie birchwoods to give fine views. Equally important is the opportunity to visit a tea-shop on the route. Terrain Unsurfaced but waymarked woodland paths, clear throughout. The path climbs a fair way above the valley floor. http://www.walkhighlands.co.uk/perthshire/bridge-of-balgie.shtml
Taymouth Castle and Kenmore Distance: 3 miles Time: 1.5-2 miles	This easy and varied walk takes in pretty Kenmore and the banks of Loch Tay. It then follows a good path along the River Tay, a popular salmon fishing river with good views. After crossing Chinese Bridge there is a chance to divert to view Taymouth Castle before returning along the banks of the wide River Tay. Terrain Good, clear paths; no waymarking. Chinese Bridge has a history of closures - at last report (autumn 2012) it was shut so it may not be possible to complete the route http://www.walkhighlands.co.uk/perthshire/taymouth-castle.shtml

Acharn Woods, Killin Distance: 3.75 miles Time: 1.5-2 hours	This easy walk through native woods and forestry plantation is good for spotting wildlife and has pleasant views from the upper section. Terrain Forest track, and path along old railway line, short uphill section. http://www.walkhighlands.co.uk/perthshire/acharn-woods.shtml
Drummond Hill and Black Rock, Kenmore Distance: 4.25 miles Time: 1.2-2 hours	Drummond Hill has two waymarked walks; this route combines both to visit the Black Rock viewpoint over Loch Tay and look out over the enormous Taymouth Castle. Terrain Waymarked forest tracks - one section of path. A fair amount of ascent is included at an easy gradient. http://www.walkhighlands.co.uk/perthshire/drummond-hill.shtml
Sron a'Chlachain and Creag Buidhe, Killin Distance: 2.5 miles Time: 1.5-2 hours	This short but strenuous walk climbs steeply above Killin through lovely oak woods and then open moorland to give fabulous views the length of Loch Tay and down over Killin itself. Terrain Clear path which is very steep at times, climbing 400 metres. http://www.walkhighlands.co.uk/perthshire/sron-a-chlachain.shtml
Kenmore Hill Distance: 3 miles Time: 1.5-2 hours	An excellent waymarked circuit on and around Kenmore Hill. The hill has been planted with Scots pines and other native trees and offers superb views of Loch Tay and the mountains beyond. Terrain Waymarked path across moorland, mostly dry underfoot with just a couple of muddy patches. http://www.walkhighlands.co.uk/perthshire/kenmore-hill.shtml
Kerrowmore Woods, Glen Lyon Distance: 3 miles Time: 1.5- 2hours	This circular walk on the south side of Glen Lyon mixes forestry tracks and winding paths through woods and moorland. Terrain Paths are marked but are faint in places http://www.walkhighlands.co.uk/perthshire/kerrowmore.shtml

Aberfeldy and Kenmore Hill Circuit Distance: 13.75 miles Time: 5-7 hours	This very varied walk takes in the picturesque Birks of Aberfeldy, the bleak moorlands around the Urlar burn and a return route through pastures and forests with good views of Strath Tay. Terrain Good tracks; though following part of the Rob Roy way these are not waymarked and care is needed to stay on route. http://www.walkhighlands.co.uk/perthshire/aberfeldy-kenmore.shtml
--	---

Please note that walking times are given as a guideline and may vary according to the capability of the group and weather conditions

Munro Mountains in the Loch Tay area

A Munro is a mountain in Scotland with a height over 3,000 ft (914.4 m).

Ben Lawers group of 5 - Meall Greigh, Meall Garbh, An Stuc, Ben Lawers and Beinn Ghlas	Please note: If doing all 5 Munros in one round, it is a good idea to leave a car or bikes at the NTS car park on the road to Bridge of Balgie. Alternatively, do the first three Munros one day from Machuim Farm, and Ben Lawers and Beinn Ghlas another day from the NTS car park.
Bridge of Balgie Road	Meall nan Tarmachan (from ¼ mile beyond the NTS car park)
Meall Corranaich and Meall a'Choire Leith	From the summit of the Bridge of Balgie Road, just north of the north end of Lochan na Lairige
Glen Lyon	Carn Gorm, Meall Garbh, Carn Mairg and Meall nan Aighean (From Inverar in Glen Lyon -- a manageable group of 4)
Stuchd an Lochan and Meall Buidhe	From the car park below the dam at the east end of Loch an Daimh

Glen Lochay	Creag Mhor and Beinn Heasgarnich (from the end of the public road just beyond Kenknock Farm in Glen Lochay, west of Killin)
Meall Glas and Sgiath Chuil	As above for Creag Mhor & Beinn Heasgarnich
Meall Ghaordaidh	From 330 yards west of Duncroisk, just beyond a small bridge
Schiehallion	Schiehallion (from the Forestry Commission car park on Schiehallion Road, near Braes of Foss Farm west of the B846 Coshieville to Tummel Bridge road)
South Loch Earn	Ben Vorlich and Stuc a'Chroin (from Ardvorlich on South Loch Earn Road)
Crianlarich Hills	Ben More and Stobinnein (from A85, 200 yards east of Ben More Farm) An Caisteal and Beinn a'Chroin (from A82, 3¾ miles south of Crianlarich).
Beinn Tulaichean and Cruach Ardrain	From Inverlochlarig on the dead- end road west from the A84 near Balquhidder. Allow 40 minutes – twisty road

Please take weather conditions into account before your walk and wear appropriate walking gear.