TERMINI COMPLEX GETTING AROUND

Address: 36, Via degli Irpini

Located in the fashionable San Lorenzo district, this tourist complex is very close to Termini Station, to the main University of Rome "La Sapienza" and very well connected with public transport.

BY CAR

You are very close to the historical center. I do not recommend to use the car.

- 20 minutes from Rome ring road (G.R.A.- Grande Raccordo Anulare)
- Walking distance from main attractions (Piazza Navona, Piazza di Spagna, Colosseo, ...)
- If you still want to move by car (or much better by bike) to get to the heart of historical centre (2 kilometres - 1.5 Miles): from Via de Lollis (on your right getting out the building) go ahead on via dei Ramni for 400 metres (1/4 miles), cross the city gate and take via Marsala in front of you. the the right lane of the subway at your left and turn right on Via Giolitti. At the end (at the main entrance of Termini Central Station, turn left on Via Cavour and go ahead up to the end. In front of you is Roman Phorum and at your left Coliseum.
